What NOT to bring to AP Exams:

- CELL PHONES – These are strictly prohibited in the testing area – your exam will be confiscated/cancelled if you are caught using your cell phone at ANY point during an exam.
- Watches that beep or have an alarm
- Portable listening/recording devices

How to make sure you get your AP scores in July:

1. Fill in AP answer sheets carefully and consistently. Especially important are name, date of birth, sex, mailing address, and email address.
2. As early as possible, sign up for a College Board account at apscore.collegeboard.org/scores (directions below). Students must have an account to access their scores. You may already have an account.
3. Remember the following information, which will be required to see your scores in July:
 - a. College Board account username and password
 - b. Your 2018 AP number

Create your account and write your College Board account information here:

1. Go to apscore.collegeboard.org/scores
2. Create an account (you may already have one from PSAT, SAT or AP exams)
3. Username: _____
4. Password: _____

Write your 2018 AP Number here : _____
(Or place one of your AP labels here)

If you've followed these steps, you will receive emails telling you how to access your scores once they are available in July.
